

VACCINATIONS

All students are required to receive all mandatory vaccinations that are required by clinical sites to gain entry and remain in the program. Vaccination exemptions may be applied for, but application for vaccinations exemptions will need to be applied for through each individual clinical site as students will rotate to more than one clinical site during the program. Exemptions are only available directly through independent clinical sites. Please discuss this with the program Clinical Coordinator for further information.